JustAPinch.com Releases Data-Driven List of Top Thanksgiving Recipes

Analyzed Millions of Cloud-Based Recipe Boxes to Find Most Popular Thanksgiving Recipes

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Nov. 12, 2018/PRNewswire/ -- JustAPinch.com, using a proprietary algorithm and data from millions of cloud-based recipe boxes, researched the Christmas recipes most popular with America's home cooks. This is a list of the most saved, viewed, shared, rated and cooked Thanksgiving recipes leading into the 2018 holiday season.

You'll find turkey, desserts, and popular sides (mac and cheese, mashed potatoes, stuffing/dressing) recipes dominating the list. Trending recipes indicate creative and regional takes on traditional Thanksgiving meals are growing in popularity. Recipes like Southern baked mac and cheese, slow cooker turkey breast, and loaded mashed potato cakes all made the list. We expect this trend will continue through the 2018 holiday season.

Internet search traffic for recipes only highlights viewing trends, but when millions of home cooks directly engage with and ultimately save a recipe in their own personal recipe box, it demonstrates a purposeful intent to cook. This gives real insight into the recipes that are being viewed, shopped for, and actually cooked in these home kitchens, and these recipes are representative of the type of Thanksgiving recipes similarly being cooked across the country.
